

Gulet SEA BREEZE

CREW PROFILES

LUKA ŠABIĆ – Captain

- 27 years old

Growing up with a close affinity to the sea ending up on a yacht was a natural course of things. Luka says that there is just a special connection between him and the sea and they simply could not make it without one another. Having 10+ years of experience on charter vessels Luka brings the Sea Breeze a wealth of knowledge and experience along with a professional attitude and eye for detail. He finds that working with people is the hardest but at the same time the most fulfilling part of the job, but his calm personality and strong leadership is a guarantee of the ultimate safety for the guests, crew, environment and the vessel while delivering a wonderful charter experience.

PETAR POLJAK – Chef

- 23 years old

After finishing school and working in different restaurants and sushi bars Petar decided to join a yacht because he believes that working on a yacht is the best way to forward your career. Since then, he spent three seasons on yachts and this is his second season on board Sea Breeze. Describing himself as hardworking, persistent and precise his work can be nothing else but thorough and quality. Focusing on the best local or seasonal products, delicate preparations and influences from the traditional cuisine Petar will surely fulfill your tasting buds' expectations. When asked to describe his cooking style in one sentence his answer is: “Finger licking good!” When not busy onboard Petar enjoys motocross drift, hiking, diving, and martial arts, actually anything that includes a dose of adrenaline.

NIKOLA MLADIN – Bartender

- 35 years old

Nikola has 15 long years of experience in bartending and cruising. He has worked on the sea since he was 20, always feeling at home on the water. Polite and always available he is responsible for keeping the boat tidy and to set the table for meals and to ensure a comfortable stay for the guests. Hardworking with excellent attention to detail, Nikola will ensure that guests are looked after in a safe, yet fun manner. He communicates well with all age groups, cultures, and backgrounds and his friendly personality has anybody feeling right at home!

JAKOV LATINAC – Deckhand

- 29 years old

After different job positions on land Jakov took a job on the boat two years ago because growing up near the sea he always felt drawn to it. Dedicated to further himself, hardworking and loyal, he is committed to his career at sea and has a great future in the yachting industry. Jakov works closely with the other members of the Sea Breeze crew in preparing the Yacht to always look and perform at its best. He embraces helping others and that skill is much appreciated by our guests who find he is very amiable, easy going, and attentive. Jakov takes a lot of pride in his work and works hard to ensure guests are happy and well taken care of. Jakov is excited to see where the future of yachting takes him. In his spare time, he loves gaming but his passion is also music and dancing (hip-hop and breakdance).

A Team Sea Breeze
will definitely put your mind at ease!
